

When working with natural slab lumber, each piece will be unique. Accommodations for the size and shape of the slab will need to be part of the planning process if you attempt to build this project.

Remove material from the center divider as needed to install the plumbing.